Where you intern in Los Angeles will determine your commute times to and from the Oakwood Apartments (3600 Barham Boulevard, Los Angeles, CA 90068).

There are many different types of companies throughout the neighborhoods and cities that make up the greater Los Angeles area, but certain types of internships are concentrated more in some areas. For example, many development internships and major talent agencies are located in or near Beverly Hills. See the following page for a general breakdown of commute times and company locations.

In general, the most common areas for internships are BURBANK, STUDIO CITY, HOLLYWOOD, WEST HOLLYWOOD, BEVERLY HILLS, CULVER CITY and SANTA MONICA. However, students have interned all over the greater Los Angeles area, especially those who participate in film productions, which typically shoot in many different locations.
